CLASS DESCRIPTION

2019

I teach basic drawing skills starting in the black and white world, beginning with pencils and working from still life's. Learning valuable tools such as values, line, measuring and relating for proportions, organic lines, straight lines, textures, working our way into toned paper with white prismacolor and pencil, then charcoal, pen and ink, colored pencils and finally watercolors. Learning techniques such as the subtractive method, perspective, stippling, using the grid system, impressed line, hatching, glazing....just for starters.

Classes starting January 9 through November 30th and are $30.00 for two hours. One month payment in advance. Schedule for missed classes will be arranged before month is over.

Remember! It's what you see NOT what you THINK you see!
